WILLIAM

By Alexander Wright

A show for children and families where the audience are right at the heart of the imagination and magic of the story. William loves books, he can't get enough of them. One day he finds himself in a magical bookshop and accidentally stumbles in to his own adventure that literally takes him to the end of the world.

A 5 Star Edinburgh Fringe Festival Show 2011 following on from the outstanding success of "Octavia" in 2010
